

Prospector

6/7/52

Dear Barb,
Keep all those fond memories of 8th grade. Carry some of these to 9th where we can have fun. Remember that party we (were) going to have soon fun at. Remember those lovely B.Y.F. meetings. Enough memories for now.
Lots of love
Duthie

Dedication.....

RUTH ATKINSON

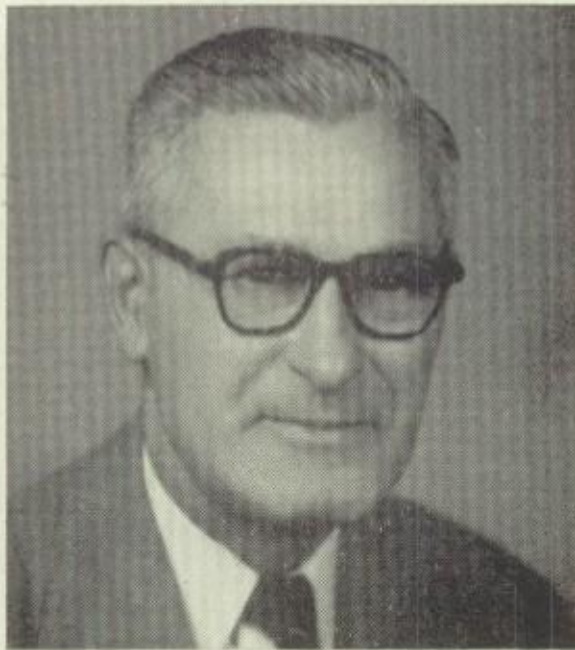

SOLOMON GREENBERG

We take great pleasure in dedicating this 1952 "Prospector" to our advisers, Miss Ruth Atkinson and Mr. Solomon Greenberg, who have done so much for us.

In so dedicating we shall not forget the leadership of Mrs. Pierro, better known as Miss Marie Ellis, who helped us through our first years in high school.

We would like to extend our appreciation and sincere thanks to these three people for giving us so much of their time and effort.

The class of 1952 would like to express its appreciation and thanks for the tireless effort and guidance of Mr. Albert Thompson in the publication of "The Prospector." Mr. Thompson worked hand in hand with the yearbook staff to produce a successful edition.

Our thanks go to Mr. Jacob Van Wyk. Without his help in the photography work of the yearbook, "The Prospector" could not have been such a success.

Principal's Message.....

RUSSELL L. WILLIAMS

This year when the opportunity presented itself for me to leave one last thought with you, I could not resist telling you just once again how important, how vital, it is to your future that you learn to get along with people. You will be working with people in offices, factories, and institutions. You will live beside people of different origins and religions. Tensions will build up at work and at home. Success, failure, happiness, and satisfaction in life are all wrapped up in your ability to live peacefully with these people. I sincerely trust you have learned some of these lessons at Prospect Park High School.

Best wishes

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset of this senior year, these officers were chosen by the members of the class. Their choice was a wise one, because this staff has carried well the responsibilities of our most important year.

With the best interests of the class in mind they worked hard to make each activity a success.

They have always done their job without question and in a manner of which the class could be proud. Being a part of the staff, I wish to express thanks to the group for a job well done.

Class History

Can it be possible that four years have passed since we first organized as freshmen? Why, it seems like only last month that we ventured forth on our high school career led by Mr. Greenberg and Miss Ellis. We immediately elected our first class officers, who were Janet Taylor, president; Barbara Kyle, vice-president; Mabelle Cochran, secretary; Elva Davis, treasurer.

Our first money-making venture was a magazine drive sponsored by the Curtis Publishing Company. By our expert salesmanship, we acquired ample funds to make us feel self-supporting.

Midway through the year we ran our first social affair, "The Bunny Hop." It was held at Campen's on April 23. Everyone who attended had a wonderful time.

When we returned in September as Sophomores, we chose as officers, Ronald Marryott, president; Richard Heinze, vice-president; Cornelia Scott, secretary; Joan Williams, treasurer.

Our class pins finally arrived. They were somewhat different from previous years, and we wore them proudly.

Early in the year we began to increase our treasury by money-making activities. As it was near Christmas time, we hit on the idea of selling paper. This proved quite successful.

The exciting climax to this very successful year was the "Spring Hop" which was held at St. James Church on May 20. Many memories were formed that night.

It does not seem like two years since that first class meeting of our happy Junior year when we elected the following as officers: Ronald Marryott, president; Janet Taylor, vice-president; Cornelia Scott, secretary; Elva Davis, treasurer. Our first topic for discussion was class rings. Several jewelers' representatives showed us rings, but Jostens' style was finally chosen. The rings arrived in time for Christmas, and, like our class pins, they were worn proudly.

In order to increase our treasury we sold peanut crunch to everyone who came near us. The class was aided in this project by Miss Atkinson, who took the place of Miss Ellis as our class adviser.

Then came the highlight of the year. Our Junior Prom was held in the Masonic Temple on January 20. The girls, attired in their new gowns, and the fellows, in their "best" suits, danced to the music of the Haverfordians. The hall was decorated in a "Winter Wonderland" theme, and our "chaperone" was a snowman.

The last day of school—and we walked down the middle aisle for the first time as seniors. After getting the good or bad news from our reports, we left for our well-earned vacation.

When we returned in September, it did not seem possible that we were the leaders of the school. After recovering from that first sensation, we settled down to elect Ronald Marryott, president; Janet Taylor, vice-president; Cornelia Scott, secretary; and Elva Davis, treasurer.

Class History

Football season soon rolled around and found the Seniors in charge of the hot dog stand at home games. By the time the first game came, we had added a new wing and a coat of paint. The class did a wonderful job and made a large profit.

Our yearbook got under way in October. Trying to look as pretty or as handsome as we could, we posed as the photographer took our pictures. In a few weeks, Mr. Thompson's room was a madhouse with anxious seniors trying to see the results. The next thing to do was to select editors. Ronald Marryott was chosen editor-in-chief; Joan McGinnis, business manager; Barbara Kyle, advertising manager; Janet Taylor, literary editor; Cornelia Scott, art editor; Mabelle Cochran, typing editor; Ted Pleibel, photography editor; Mildred Barder, patron editor; and Joan Williams, sales manager.

Then, after weeks of practice, sometimes serious and sometimes quite humorous, our first attempt at a dramatic production was presented on the stage. The play, "You Can't Take It With You," was presented on December 5th. Thanks to Mr. Winters, the play was a huge success; and we all retired, in our career as actors, feeling quite proud of ourselves. After the play the class was given a party at the home of Bill Adams.

Next came the tremendous Senior Ball and Banquet. Finding both a site and an orchestra for this big event were problems, but they were very well taken care of. The Aronimink Country Club was the beautiful site where everyone enjoyed the music of Nick Mancini's Orchestra.

Two of the class's most memorable, strictly-for-laughs events were the hockey and the basketball games between the senior he-men and the senior girls. Will we ever forget the fierce drives of Frank Conner toward the goal, or the antics of Chuck Bohan under the basket? The boys proudly ran up overwhelming victories in both cases.

At last it came! The New York Trip—ah, what magic words! They spelled three wonderful days of carefree freedom—trips to the Statue of Liberty, the Bowery, Chinatown; the tour to Radio City; the stage show and, of course, the sleepless nights at Hotel Taft.

But all good things must come to an end and this was no exception. We were brought down to earth again by the coming of our final exams.

With these out of the way, we realized that our school days were almost over. This fact was made even clearer by our impressive Baccalaureate service, which was held at the high school for the first time, and our original and unusual Class Night was presented.

Now, only Commencement lay as a link between our unforgettable years of school and the outside world.

Finally we were marching solemnly down the aisle to the inspiring strains of "Pomp and Circumstance." As we received our diplomas, we each sensed the fulfillment of the first big milestone in our lives.

Class Prophecy

The time is 1962, and the subject is the class of '52. Much has happened in the last ten years, and the scattered members of our class have made many and varied marks in the world. Some are quite well known while others have not changed a bit! Curious as to what our classmates have done, we decided to spend one day exploring.

Looking into one of the most prominent offices in Washington, we see an executive dictating to an efficient secretary. The executive looks like Walt Fraser while his pretty secretary strongly resembles Barbara Kyle. Barb is in demand for her shorthand technique nowadays. While we watch them, we see a visitor arriving to consult with Walt. He is an electrical engineer who has made quite a mark in the engineering field. He is none other than our own Jack Forrest. After Jack graduated, he continued his studies and is now a highly respected expert in electrical engineering.

But what is this commotion down the hall? Someone is grumbling about something. Ah, now we hear. It's Alec Slater, that rich farm magnate from Delaware, complaining about the way the government is building a railroad across his huge farm. Alec should get results after his strenuous college course in P.O.D.

He is temporarily interrupted by the telephone repairman, who enters at this time. Why, it's Walt Parsons! We wonder why he came to Washington. On his way out Walt stops to chat with receptionist Pat Small. The subject somehow turns to sports, and we learn that Chuck Bohan, after finishing a very successful season with a professional basketball team, is touring the country giving lectures on football and basketball.

While they are talking, Helen McFadden the secretary from the next office, walks in. Helen is all aflutter these days as she is to be married very soon. She comes in to tell Pat that the wedding invitations for which she sent home have arrived. Of course they were printed by our new home town printer, Ted Pleibel. Ted has invented a new kind of type and is making out very well in the printing world.

We hear that Soniajune Watterson is leaving from Washington Airport for a world tour as a concert pianist. Leaving on the same plane is George Lohnes, who is making the Navy his career. After seeing them off, we too board a plane for Philadelphia. Upon arriving there, we go to the administration building and there find Grace Cuddy and Joan Fanean, ever faithful, working as secretaries. As we leave, we run into Mabelle Cochran and Joan McGinnis, returning from their lunch hour. Both are employed as secretaries to the president of the airline. Mabelle tells us not to miss the new T.V. program, "The Hulse Comedy Hour", starring our class comedian, Ray Hulse. His special guests this evening are going to be Ed Sellers and Miriam VanWyk, who will demonstrate various types of dancing.

After leaving the airport, we look in on the home town scene. We see that Jim Ferzetti's outstanding butcher shop, which he opened a few years after graduation, is a gathering place for Prospect's housewives. Among them we find Pat Rhodes, Mona Langton, and Barbara Strohm. Pat, who served six years with the Navy, has settled down with an officer. Mona also married into the armed forces after working several years as a clerk. Barbara, after graduating from teachers' college, gave up elementary teaching in order to get married. All have comfortable, well established homes now.

Overhearing some of their conversation, we learn that Pat Amy and Mildred Barder are also married and living upstate. Pat is still working as a comptometer operator in an insurance office. Mildred is donating some of her time to a local hospital but still has time to play the piano and is much in demand in that category.

Class Prophecy

Speaking of hospitals, we find four more of our classmates interested in the health of our nation. Joan Williams is working as a visiting nurse in Delaware County. Her patients claim that she has the gentlest touch of any nurse. Janet Taylor holds the position of supervisor of nurses in a large city hospital, doing a wonderful job in keeping nurses and patients alike happy. Elva Davis is employed in the laboratory of the same hospital, having received special training in that phase of nursing. She works side by side with famous doctors in making any kind of diagnosis. Charlotte Beagle is working as a private nurse, while on the sideline she is writing a book protesting socialized medicine. She does quite a bit of research work in the city library where Edna Coffman is head librarian. Edna is happily married now and works in the library as a hobby.

A visit to our home town would not be complete without going to our old alma mater. Here we find a few changes. Elaine Dugan has taken over girls' physical education and is doing a wonderful job in coaching championship basketball teams. Not to be outdone, the boys' basketball team is up on top under the capable leadership of Ron Marryott. We hear Ron was president of his college class!

Hearing excited chatter from the Home Ec. room, we discover the girls raving over the latest fashions designed by our former classmate, Cornelia Scott. Cornelia has been making quite a name for herself in the field of fashions.

Going upstairs, we hear Mr. Thompson trying his best to convince Claire Sode to go to Alaska as a missionary. Claire, however, is more intrigued by Africa.

Going with the present retailing class, we visit a local industry and find Frank Conner, Frank McLaughlin, and Bill Taylor hard at work. Bill Taylor, by the way, besides winning this year's roller skating championship, also recently took out a patent on a new draft-type ice boat. We learn that Flip Fioravanti works here too but at present is away playing basketball for the company's team.

Walking farther on, we discover Bill Adams busy at work constructing a new addition for the company's experimental laboratory. Alice McCullough, who works in this laboratory as an assistant to the head technician, tells us that Bill is head carpenter of the company now.

On our way home we notice a flourishing used-car business. Upon investigation we find Tom Shilling running a chain business of buying and selling used wrecks. Working with him as private secretaries are Anna May Pierce and Ginny Ives. While we are talking with Tom, Milton Stith, now a certified public accountant, comes in to check Tom's books for him.

Later, as we go on down the street, we hear a police whistle. Hearing a sharp reprimand in a feminine voice, we are amazed to see Ann Bruner giving Frank Hazel a ticket for hot-rodding through a slow-speed zone.

Continuing on our way, we notice a new novelty shop. Entering the shop, we find Orval Palsgrove, the owner, thinking up ingenious devices that will cut his working time to a three hour day. He tells us that Linwood Lilley, who is working in a local industry, is invaluable in helping him invent novelties. Regina Embon does an efficient job of keeping track of the patents and correspondence in this strange store.

A little farther down the street we stop to look at the beautiful displays in Banamaker's windows. A passing shopper, who is none other than Barbara Sayre, the famous novelist, tells us that Ann Barrowclough is the creator of these original displays.

Tired from our long day of exploring, we return home. We can't tell what the future may hold for us, but we are proud to have belonged to the Class of '52. GOOD LUCK.

Class Will

- I, William Adams, bequeath my ability to get out of classes to anyone who thinks he can afford it.

- I, Janet Taylor, bequeath my ability in sports to my sister, Christine, and my short walk to school to Gerald Lilley.
- I, William Taylor, bequeath my ability to pull the wool over any teacher's eyes to any underclassman who has the guts to try it.
- I, Miriam Van Wyk, bequeath all the fun I had in Senior High to my sister, Betty, and brothers, Johnny and Bobby.
- I, Soniajune Watterson, bequeath my athletic prowess and outstanding musical ability to Sallie Jeanne, my sister; also my beautiful brown eyes to anyone who needs them.
- I, Joan Williams, bequeath my ability in the goal cage to anyone who has a weak mind and a strong heart.

The Junior Class began their second year of high school by electing as their officers: President, Norman Hoffert; Vice-President, John Christensen; Secretary, Grace Gorbey; and Treasurer, Marvin Adams. To complete the Executive Board, Alva Miller, William Erickson, Anne Stein and Larry Hall were elected.

Student Government Representatives for the first semester were Shirley Franks, Don Hamilton, Marvin Adams, John Van Wyk and Elizabeth Mundell. William Erickson, Ginny Moore, John Van Wyk, Jimmy Field and Elizabeth Mundell took over the job for the second semester.

One of the biggest thrills of the year for these Juniors was the much-awaited arrival of their class rings in October. Upon close observation, it was noted that the distinctive style of these rings was quite different from previous styles in our school.

To begin the great process of building up their treasury, the Juniors began their peanut crunch sale. This proved very successful, and a great boost to their treasury.

The day for their Junior Prom finally arrived on February 9. That night found everyone dancing to the dreamy music of "The Criterions" in the Masonic Hall at "The Cinderella Ball." A few of the main highlights of the decorations were a castle in the center of the floor, a pumpkin carriage at one end of the dance floor, a castle setting around the stage and a rotating, crystal ball in the center of the ceiling, reflecting prisms of light around the room. The great success of this dance is highly attributed to their President, the committees, everyone in the class and to their able and very much appreciated class advisers, Mrs. Ida S. Hewitt and Mr. Robert Winters.

Now the Juniors are looking forward to their greatest of all years, when they return to school in September as Seniors. Although a small class, they are sure that as the new Seniors of 1953, they will show the leadership and athletic ability that is expected of them and will prove a great asset to the school.

SOPHOMORES

The sophomores began their first year of Senior High by electing the following: Gerald Lilley, President and Vice-President; Edward Morrell, Secretary; and Vincent Fioravanti, Treasurer. Their class advisers are Miss Grace Wolfenden and Mr. Albert R. Thompson.

The following served on Student Government: Gerald Lilley, Joanne Martin, Peg Cookman, and Judy Perrine.

The sophomore class has been selling wrapping paper, stationery, Christmas cards and everyday cards. Their annual school dance, "The Mardi Gras," on March 1st was very successful. Joanne Martin was decorations chairman; Gail Griffith, murals chairman; Peggy Cookman, throne chairman; Robert Slaymaker, ceiling chairman; Joseph Mayo, poster chairman; Verna Shockley, program chairman; Judy Perrine, refreshment chairman. A good time was had by all. They also plan to have a cake bake later in the year.

The class is very ambitious and we hope this will continue all through the rest of their school years.

Best of Luck, Barbara!

Dear Barbara,
Good luck in all you do,
specially in Township

Janie

The Freshmen Class began their last year of junior high school by electing the following officers: Charles Welsh, President; William Simmons, Vice-President; Charles Amos, Secretary; and Judy Barrowclough, Treasurer. Student Government Representatives were: Anne Behringer, Regina D'Esposito and Sara Jane Hoar from the nine-two homeroom, Barbara Jarvis, Benjamin Leach, William Simmons, and Robert Woznicki from the nine-one homeroom. Miss Helen Fehl and Mr. Norman Wray are faculty advisers.

The first real job of the class was the Magazine Drive. William Simmons and Howard Beagle were the highest salesmen selling $82.50 each. The Freshmen proved their ability by going over the top. They received a radio which they chanced off to the highest bidder. Richard DeGraves was the highest bidder and received the radio.

The next big event on their calendar was the Freshmen Party. The theme was the "Snow Ball Scene" with a huge snowman as its main attraction. The Dance Committee consisted of chairman Charles Welsh, Judy Barrowclough, Sara Jane Hoar, Lynn Mechesney, Thomas Lippart, and Howard Beagle.

We feel sure that the Freshmen will be very successful in their future years.

"Best of Luck"

Prospect Park High School began its football season early in August. The Prospectors, with 7 lettermen returning, looked forward to a good season, but the loss of Captain Chuck Bohan a week before the season started, weakened the team tremendously. Chuck fractured his cheek bone during a scrimmage with Collingdale and was lost to the team for five games.

The Blue and Gold opened their grid season with their annual first game rival, Springfield, on September 22. The game, being the first for both teams, was characterized by many fumbles and other errors. At half-time Springfield led 18-6, but after the half, the Prospectors got up a little steam and rolled the score to an 18-18 tie, where the two teams stayed deadlocked until the final gun.

After getting over the first game hump the Prospectors were ready for the ever dangerous Clifton Heights eleven. The boys, playing their first home game, looked greatly improved. Prospect rolled over Clifton to the tune of 26-7 aided by the spectacular running of Flip Fioravanti, who acted as captain in the absence of Chuck.

Our second home game, a morning affair, did not prove as lucky as our first, for our "gridders" met one of the toughest opponents in Delaware County in the team of Upper Chichester. Prospect held Upper Chichester to a 6-0 first half, but Upper Chichester's power proved to be too much and they added two touchdowns in the final half for an 18-0 score.

The Blue and Gold came right back to sweep a 6-0 tilt from Sharon Hill. Flip Fioravanti skirted end for the 30 yards that proved to be the pay-off.

Next on the schedule was a rugged Glen-Nor squad. This was Capt. Chuck Bohan's first game and he proved himself as he helped the Prospectors in their 26-7 conquest.

The following week Marple Newtown served up the opposition and proved no obstacle for the red hot Prospectors who crushed them 34-13.

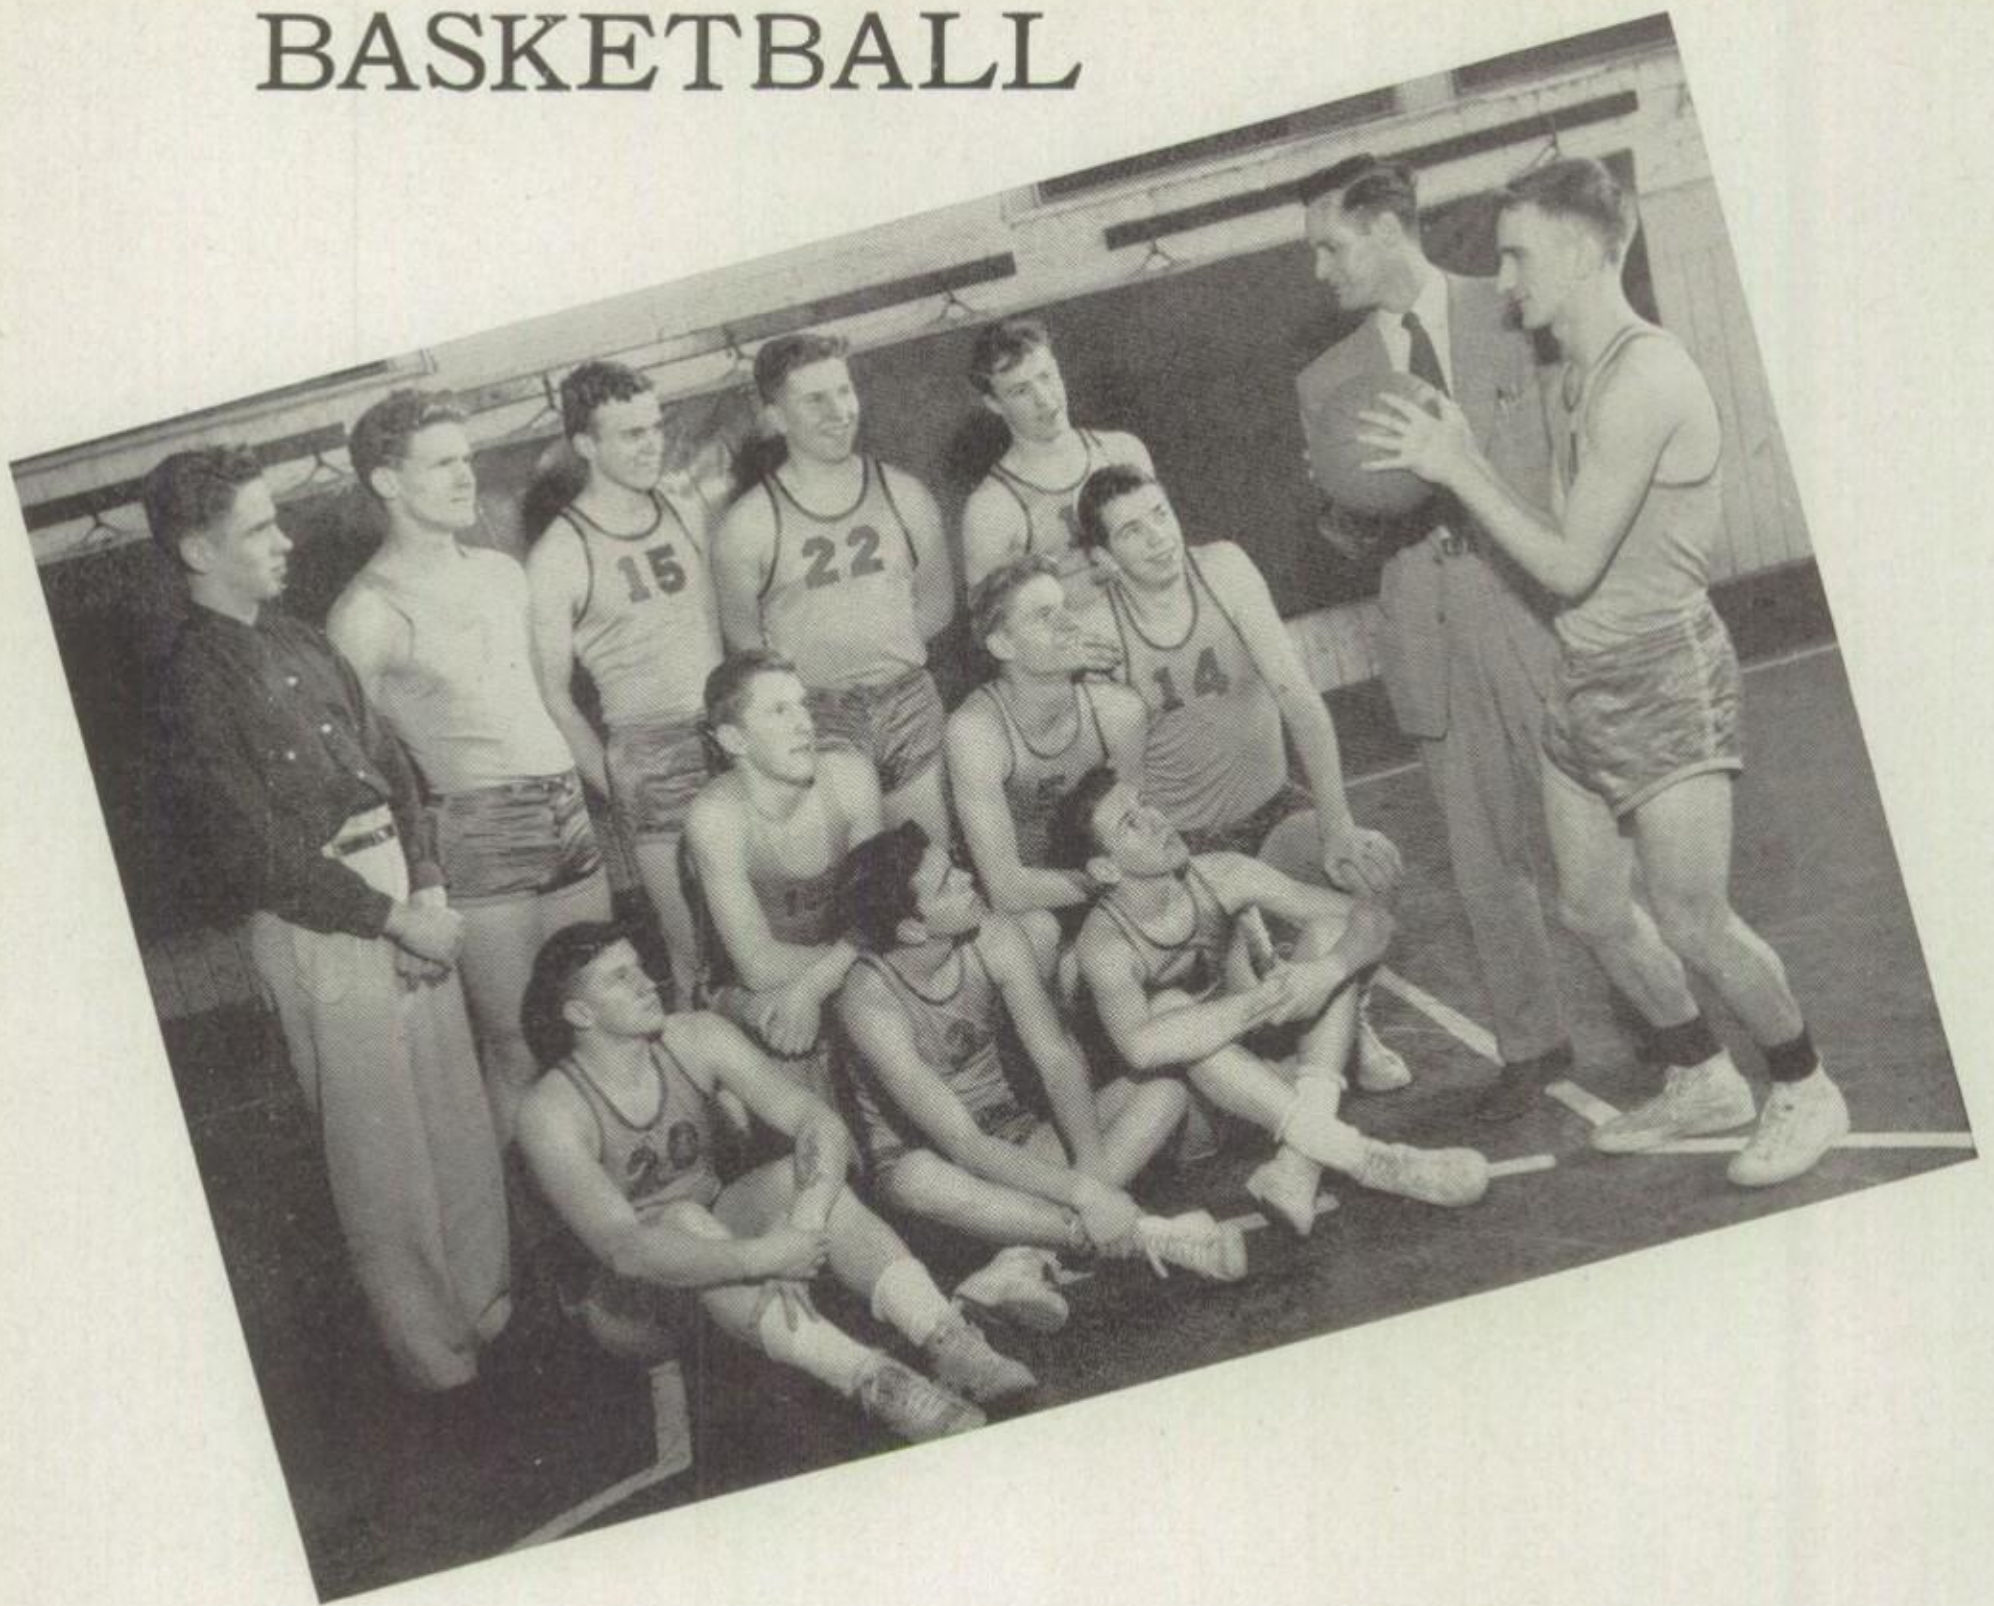

With 3 straight victories under our belts, we were ready for Eddystone. The Stoners, who featured All-Delco Marty Kennedy and speedy Jim Urey, could not be stopped. The outcome was a dreary 25-0 loss.

Swarthmore loomed as our next opponent. Swarthmore, who went into the game undefeated, gave Prospect their second straight defeat.

The Turkey Day contest feated our always sharp neighbors, Ridley Park, against our own "gridders". This game was a ferocious battle from the beginning to the end. This was only natural, for the seniors taking part on both teams gave their all. Prospect led for the whole game only to have a final 30-second desperation pass end it in a 12 to 7 defeat. This was truly a heart breaker.

In spite of this final game the school is proud of the boys' gridiron record of 4 wins, 4 losses and 1 tie. The things that we look back and remember most are the following: the fine passing and spectacular running of Flip Fioravanti, who made second team All Delco; the hard, smashing line playing of Walt Parsons, also second string All Delco; the thrilling catches of Chuck Bohan; the ever alert line play of Bill Adams; those kick returns by John Van Wyk; the powerful and relentless stamina of our two half-backs—Jimmy Ferzetti and Bill Bradford; and the all-around playing of the rest of the fellows. Those who played their last game for the "alma mater" are: Chuck Bohan, Flip Fioravanti, Jack Forrest, Jim Ferzetti, Walt Parsons, Ted Pleibel, and Ed Sellers.

BASKETBALL

In the past few years Prospect Park High School has produced basketball teams which have been phenomenal and this year was no exception to the rest. The Blue and Gold compiled an amazing record of 18-5 for the over-all season. In league competition the quintet had an 11-1 record which was good enough to take the Section III Championship.

Mr. Wright was at the helm of this superb team as he has been in the past four years. The boys who made this season a memory marker were Captain Flip Fioravanti, a fine shot and smooth ball handler; Chuck Bohan, our big backboard man and leading scorer in Section III; Ron Marryott, a first class playmaker and clutch man; Bill Worrel, our other high scorer and backboard man; and rounding out the high scoring five was either Jack Forrest or Larry Hall, two hustling forwards who alternated at the position.

Prospect again entered the Coaches' Tournament at the beginning of the season and were not so successful as previous years, losing their first game to Ridley Township after knocking off Upper Chichester and Chester before the tourney. In the consolation game of the tournament the Prospectors took the measure of Sharon Hill with a decisive victory. The Prospectors opened their league season by thumping Ridley Park on the home court. The Blue and Gold moved through the next five league games by defeating Swarthmore, Ridley Township, Conshohocken, Glen-Nor, and Eddystone. The next game with Ridley Park was the only league game the boys lost, a 58-57 heartbreaker. Prospect sailed through the rest of their league games defeating Swarthmore, Ridley Township, Conshohocken, Glen-Nor and Eddystone all for the second time. With the league season ended they journeyed to Haverford School to conquer their highly rated team. The basketballers then went down in defeat to a strong Radnor team 46-42 bettering their previous trouncing by the boys from Wayne to the tune of 46-29. The last scheduled game was with a much improved Sharon Hill team. The team finished up the regular schedule by whipping the Owls.

By winning their respective section the Prospectors qualified for the Class "B" State Play-offs. The first play-off game was with Kennett Square, the Chester County Champions. The game, which was played at West Chester High School gym on March 1, was really a thriller and after four exciting periods the Prospectors came off with a 39-36 victory. The next hurdle for the quintet was Hilltown, Lower Bucks County Champions. This game was played at the Radnor gym on the following Friday. Hilltown floored a surprisingly small squad and Prospect, with their height advantage, easily routed their rival 68-39.

By successfully moving their first two barriers, the Blue and Gold squad moved into the finals of District I. Darby, who also qualified for the finals by winning their previous two tilts, supplied the opposition for our smooth moving basketball machine. This game was played in the spacious Palestra on the 11th of March. Darby, who had a definite height advantage, seemed to be an easy prospective winner. Our team put up a tremendous fight and led 11-10 at the quarter and 23-19 at the half. In the third and fourth quarters the lead see-sawed back and forth and neither team could gain a decisive edge. With less than three minutes to go Darby came through with a barrage of points to barely edge out the Prospectors 35-32. The season thus came to an end with this disheartening defeat.

The boys who have played their last basketball game at Prospect High are Flip Fioravanti, Chuck Bohan, Ron Marryott, Jack Forrest, Walt Parsons, Ted Pleibel, Ed Sellers, Linwood Lilley and Bill Adams.

HOCKEY

Under the leadership of Miss Dorothy Schumann and the new assistant coach, Miss Mary Lou Babbitt, Prospect Park started hockey practice the second week of September. With only Joan Williams and Cornelia Scott returning from last year's varsity, Miss Schumann had to practically rebuild the team.

After winning two practice games, Prospect opened the season with a 2-0 victory over Collingdale on September 28.

With these victories behind them, the girls were looking forward to the Clifton Heights game, which is always exciting and well-played. The Hockeyettes, in spite of all their determination to win, lost to Clifton by a score of 2-0.

Prospect's next opponent, Springfield, went home with a 4-0 victory on October 18.

In an effort to encourage the girls to win, Miss Schumann promised that if they defeated Ridley Park, every forward who scored would receive a free sundae. If the backfield prevented Ridley from scoring, they also would receive free sundaes. With this incentive behind them, the Hockeyettes went on to win 1-0.

The Hockeyettes' victory over Ridley Park proved to be just what the girls needed, for their next opponent, Ellis College, met defeat at the hands of Prospect 1-0.

Having postponed the Glen-Nor game a day, on November 2 the girls took to the field like ducks to water. This is literally true, because the field just missed being a lake. Glen-Nor was thoroughly confused by the rain, mud, and Prospect's tactics. The Prospectors won by a 4-1 score.

Ridley Township and a re-scheduled Sharon Hill game were no exceptions as they too met defeat by scores of 2-0 and 4-1 respectively.

As we survey the varsity, we find that there will be eight seniors departing from the first team. Co-captains Cornelia Scott, our speedy center halfback who backed up the forward line so well, and Joan Williams, goalie, who kept many opponents from scoring, will be missed. Seniors who made up the forward line were the following: Mabelle Cochran, center forward; Elaine Dugan, right inner; and Barbara Strohm, right wing. The backfield was made up of the following seniors: Elva Davis, left halfback; Janet Taylor, right halfback, and Barbara Kyle, right fullback. All these girls have played their last hockey game for Prospect Park.

The high scorer for the year was Dottie McKnight with 8 goals. Elaine Dugan had 3; Mabelle Cochran, 2; and Cornelia Scott, 1.

Let us not forget the J.V. They lost only one game during the entire season. This was to Springfield by a 1-0 score. They tied Collingdale, Clifton Heights, and Ellis College, and defeated Ridley Park, Glen-Nor, Ridley Township and Sharon Hill.

This has been a very successful season, and it was the fine coaching of Miss Schumann and Miss Babbitt that made it possible. We thank them for all they have done for us, and we must also give a big "thank you" to our managers, Mona Langton and Roberta Griffith.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Early in December the girls' basketball team started practice. After cutting the squad to thirty-three members, Miss Schumann, assisted by Miss Mary Lou Babbitt, put the girls through many drills designed to improve their skills and to teach them new ones.

As last year's varsity was composed of all seniors, and the J.V. was also made up partially of seniors, the girls had had little experience. In spite of this they had plenty of spirit and were determined to have a successful season. The varsity forwards were Mabelle Cochran, Joan Williams, Elaine Dugan, Dottie McKnight, and Pat Melrath. The guards were Elva Davis, Regina Embon, Barbara Kyle, Janet Taylor, and Harlene Rementer. They elected Mabelle Cochran as their captain at their first game.

The first game was held on January 10 on Prospect's court. After a rough first half the team settled down and defeated Marple-Newtown by a 52-31 score.

The high scorer for both teams was Mabelle Cochran with a total of 16 points. Joan Williams was the next highest with 13 points.

The next game was played at home against Yeadon High on January 17. Although they played hard, Prospect was defeated by a very narrow margin 49-45.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

In this game Mabelle was high scorer again, this time with the amazing total of 30 points. Incidentally, this was the highest number of points scored by any Prospect forward during the season.

The following week the girls traveled to Ridley Township. The two teams battled evenly at the start, but Township gradually increased their lead and won by a 53-32 score.

Prospect's next game at home was on January 31 against Springfield. This game was well played and very close. However, Springfield won by a single point 35-34.

This game was the most exciting one of the entire season. The lead changed hands many times during the course of the game. One single point gave Springfield the victory!

On February 5, Prospect played Ridley Park on the latter's floor. The girls from Prospect lost another game. The score, 56-35.

On February 14 the "Prospectors" went to Eddystone and suffered their worst defeat of the year. The score was 54-13.

The team finally broke its losing streak by defeating Collingdale High on February 18 at home. Prospect won by a 36-29 score.

Mabelle Cochran was the high scorer for both teams with a total of 20 points.

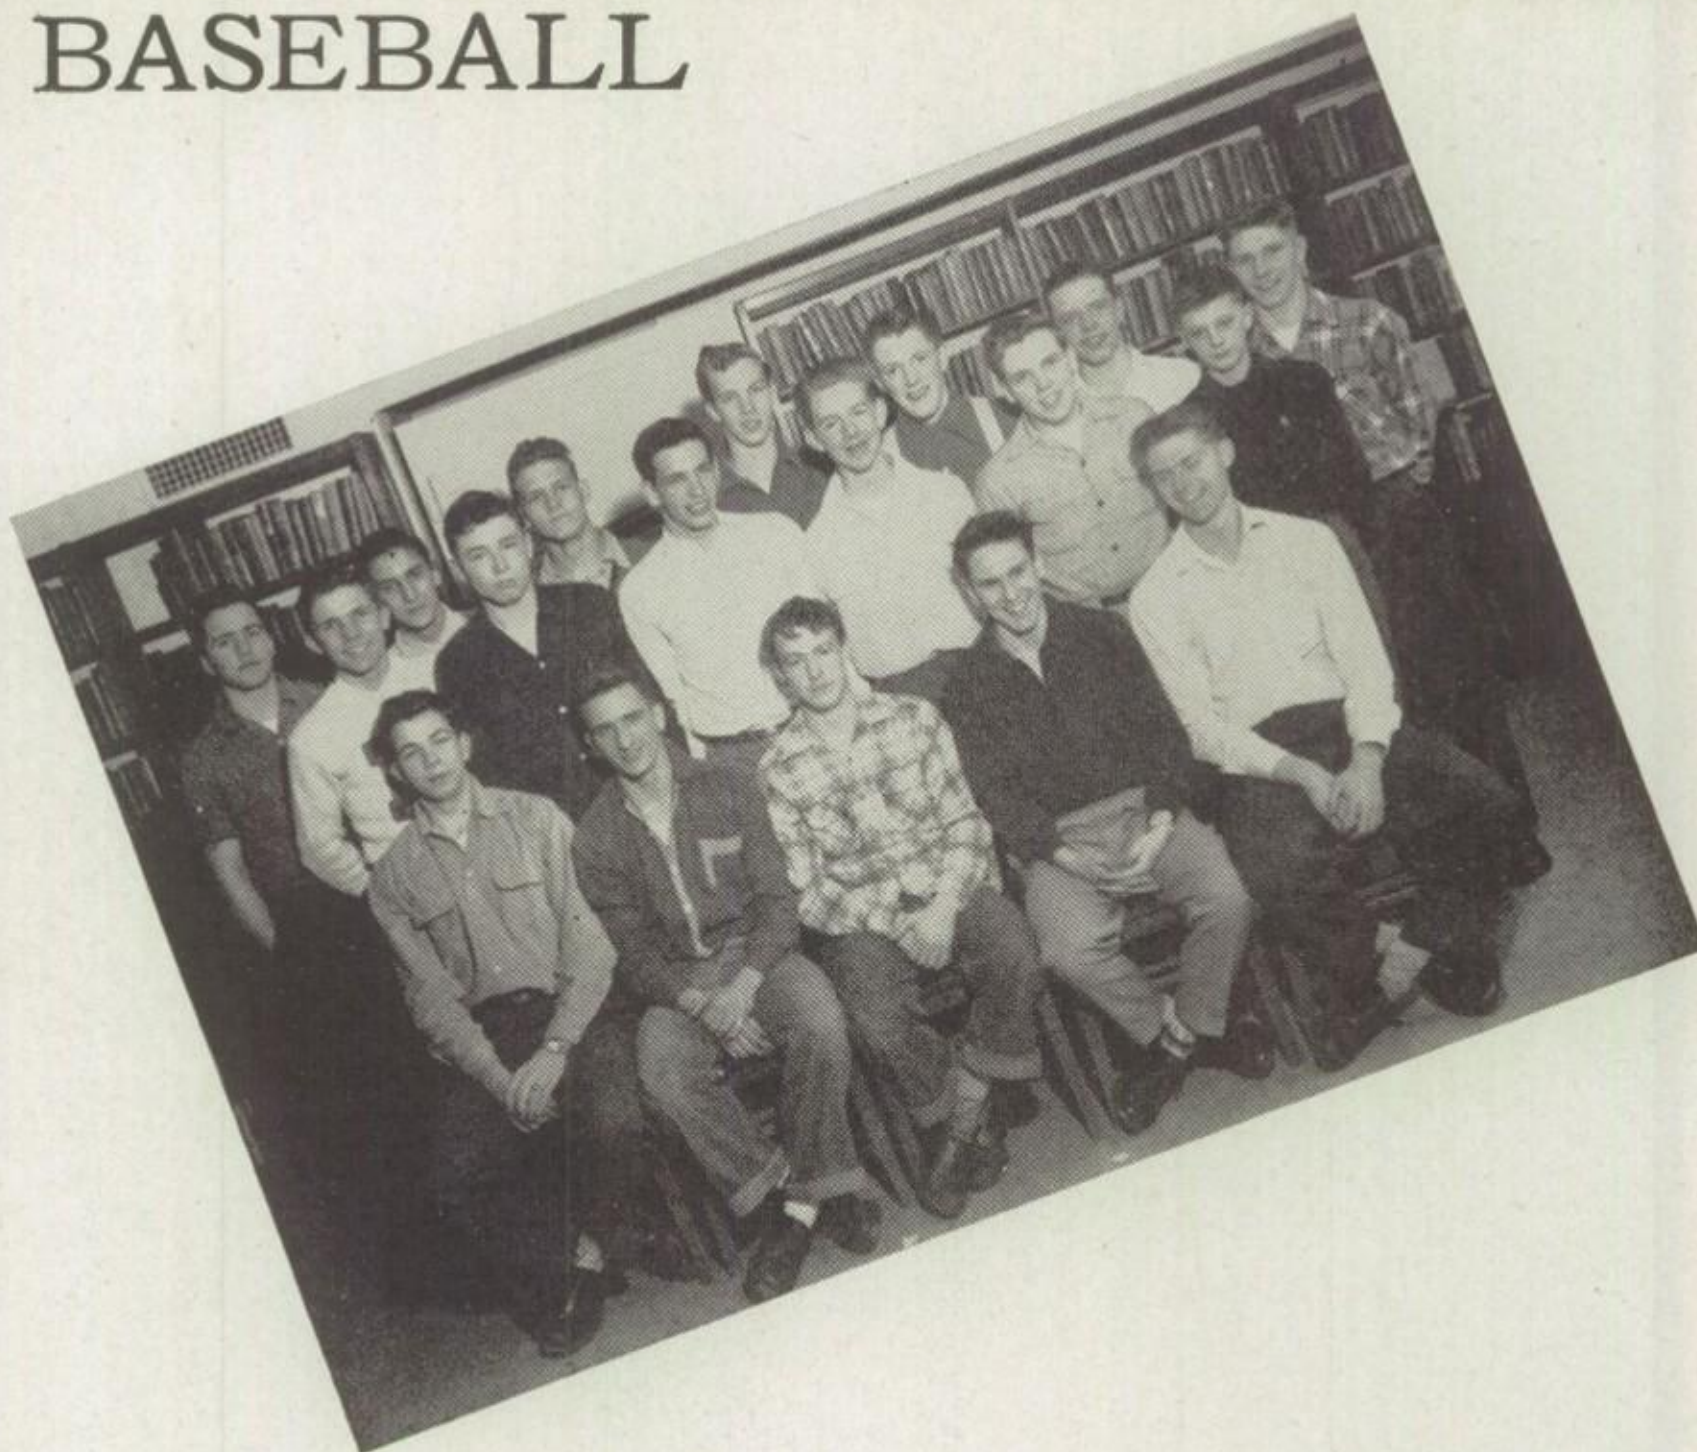

The last game of the season was played at Glen-Nor on February 20. The girls played a wonderful game and came out on top 48-35.

The J.V.'s had a very successful season, losing only one game. Their only defeat was to Eddystone by a 29-24 score.

The managers who aided the coaches and kept records were Alice McCullough, Grace Gorbey, and Sandra Goepfert.

BASEBALL

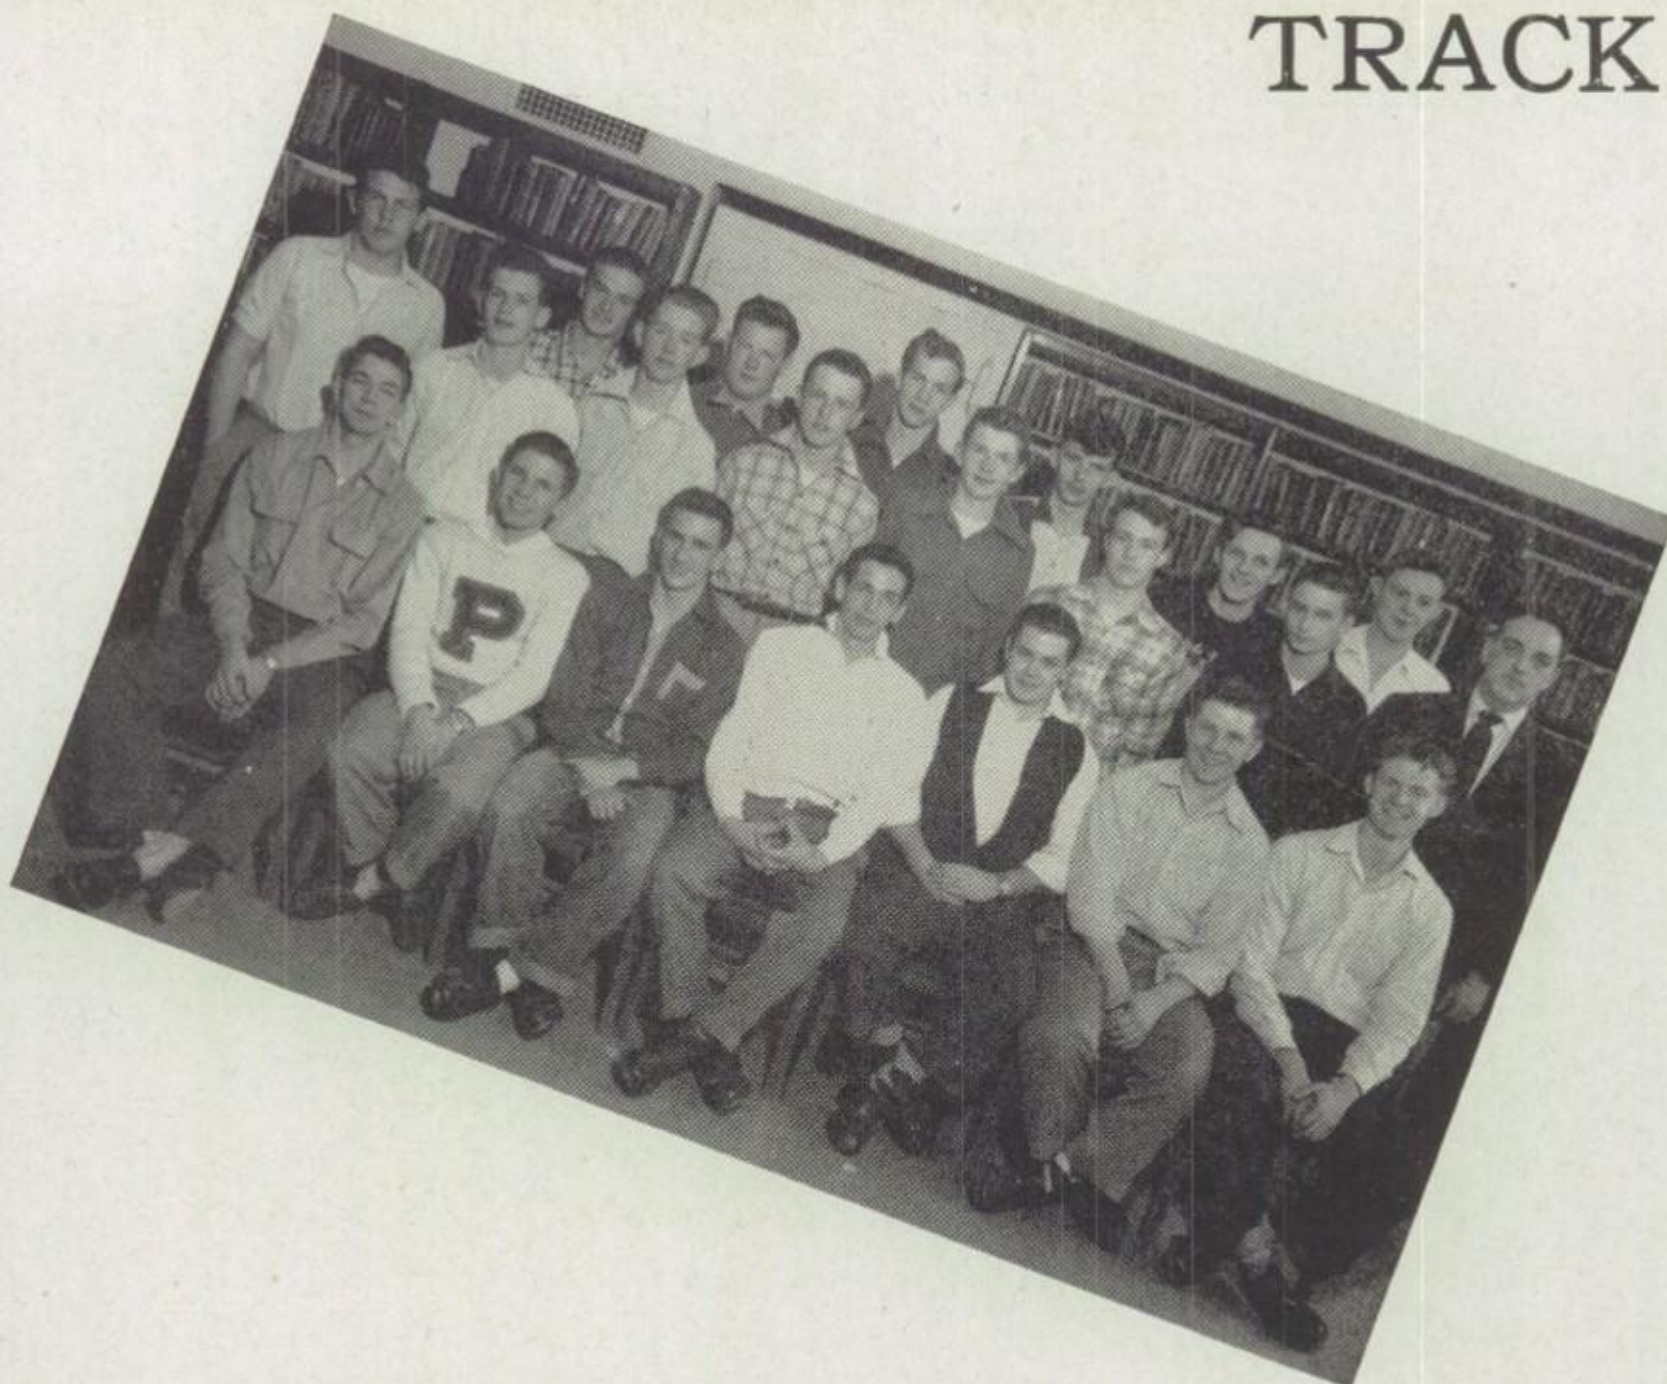

At the time of writing, Prospect has a good chance of coming out on top in their section, with four lettermen returning. These varsity men include: Bill Worrell, catcher; Jack Forrest, pitcher; John Christensen, first base; and Philip Fioravanti, outfielder.

Promising candidates practicing under the supervision of Russell Hillegass, the new mentor replacing Mr. Buchy, are as follows: Ted Pleibel, Jim Ferzetti, Marvin Adams, Jim Fields, Bill Smith, John Van Wyk, Ron Marryott, Bucky Welsh, Bill Simmons, Vince Fioravanti, Ken Fegely, David Gorbey, Leland Bassett, and Robert Kewley.

Walter Parsons, ineligible for the squad this year, will assist Mr. Hillegass in producing a fine ball club. The boys are looking forward to a good season and with spirit and hustle can finish high in their league.

TRACK

Track season opened this year with three entries in the Spiked Shoe Meet at the University of Pennsylvania. Entered were Captain John Van Wyk, miler; Jim Ferzetti, sprinter; and Eddie Andrews, miler. Besides these three, the backbone of this year's team consists of Walt Fraser, shot-putter; Flip Fioravanti, sprinter; Bill Whaley, discus; Leo Cerenzia, high jump; Larry Hall, javelin; and Ed Morrell, sprinter.

Other talent is expected to come from Chuck Bohan, Jack Forrest, Ted Pleibel, Bill Worrell, Bill Erickson, Bill Adams, Bill Smith, Mike Dillon, Harold Taylor, Charles Johnson, Allen Finlayson, Jack Cigler, Bob Woznicki, Charles Welsh, Bill Simmons, Howard Beagle, Bob Van Wyk, Dick Weaver, Dick Rhodes, Dick Miles and Bob Lunger.

Last year, Mr. Topping had one runner, Harry Manning, eligible for state competition. While Harry's presence is sincerely missed, Mr. Topping hopes this year to have at least two contestants for the state meet.

While track does not enjoy as many spectators as other sports, much credit is to be given to Mr. Topping for his time and effort in making our team as good as it is. The remainder of this year's schedule is as follows:

Friday	Apr. 18	Sharon Hill	Away
Friday & Saturday	Apr. 25-26	Franklin Field	Away
Saturday	May 3	Delaware Co. Meet

MUSICAL ORGAN

The band started what promised to be a very successful year as soon as school began. Jack Forrest was elected president; Bill Adams, vice-president; Mabelle Cochran, secretary; and Bill Smith, representative to the band committee. Barbara Sayre stepped into the position of manager. Our capable and hard-working music director, Mr. Cooley, continued the 8:00 A. M. practices.

Several new instruments, including two flutes, a sousaphone, a baritone, and a saxophone, were bought for the band early in the year.

Almost at once the band began practicing for the University of Pennsylvania Cultural Olympics, which took place in early November. Here it entered as a concert band and won an award of merit—a very high honor.

During Christmas vacation, the band committee rewarded the members of the band, for their hard work in the previous year, by treating them to a trip to the Ice Follies. This was an especially enjoyable event as last year's graduates were able to go along.

The next event on the agenda was the Variety Show presented in January. This show was the first of its kind in Prospect Park and was given for all the Band Boosters—people who had contributed to the funds earlier in the year. The performance featured a clarinet solo, a tuba solo, trumpet trio, and a novelty piece by the band.

The band demonstrated more of its talent and marching ability in the Kiwanis Band Festival held in May.

The Band Concert was its crowning achievement this year, as in others. Everyone who attended marvelled over the great advances the band had made in the past year.

The majorettes and colorguards started their eventful year at the football games, where their colorful routines caught everyone's eye. Especially notable were the routines they did together—the first time anything like that has been done here.

ZATIONS.....

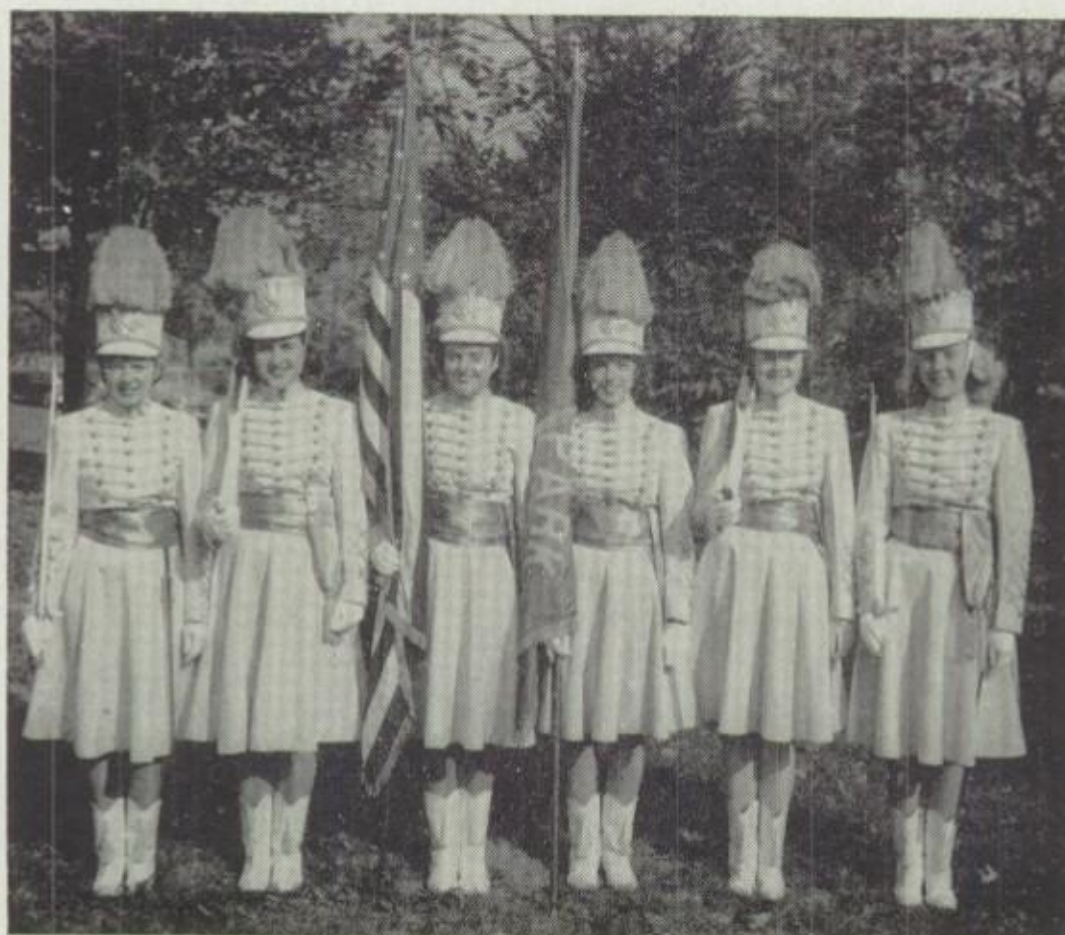

The majorette squad was completely new except for its experienced captain, Mabelle Cochran. The new majorettes were Grace Gorbey, Judy Perrine, Joanne Martin, Betty Lou Cochran, Lynn Mechesney, Janet Walls, and Marion McKeone. Everyone has remarked about how wonderful their routines have been this year at football games, the variety show, and the Band Concert. Especially notable formations were the pyramids the girls formed—something entirely different in the types of routines.

The colorguards, under the leadership of co-captains Ann Barrowclough and Pat Small, brought their colorful flag-twirling to football games, and entertained everyone with their Band Concert routine. Participants with the co-captains were Janet Taylor, Joan McGinnis, Joan Williams, Barbara Kyle, and Anne Stein.

The chorus, also has had a successful year, with a very fine performance in the Christmas program, which featured the "Halleluiah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah. Dotty McNight, Doris Barnshaw, Bill Adams, and George Lohnes were chosen to sing in the District Chorus on February 2nd, 9th, and 16th.

The whole organization sang for the Delaware County School Directors' meeting at Media in March. And, as always, after a year of splendid work, they gave a memorable performance in the Band Concert.

CHEERLEADERS

G. Moore, S. Diamond, A. McCullough, B. Strohm, E. Dugan, Captain; J. McCulloch, R. Bazis, D. McKnight, C. Scott.

What sparks Prospect's teams to so many victories? Perhaps it is fine team play, good coaching, a splendid fighting spirit, and a will to win. But there is something more. Once a team is in competition, our cheerleaders are there on the sidelines, cheering them on and telling them that the whole school is there with them and backing them. Real spirit could never lag with these peppy girls uniting the whole school behind Prospect's teams.

The cheerleaders also serve as Prospect's first representatives of good sportsmanship. In all home contests it is our cheerleaders who sound the first "Welcome" to visiting teams and spectators, and wherever Prospect teams travel, these girls go along as emissaries of our good spirit and good sportsmanship.

The seniors graduating this year are Elaine Dugan, Captain; Cornelia Scott, Barbara Strohm, each with three years' service and Alice McCullough with one years' service. The remaining squad consists of Dottie McKnight, Ginny Moore, Rae Bazis, Sally Diamond, and Jackie McCulloch.

SENIOR PLAY

When it came time to decide upon our senior play, we seniors chose "You Can't Take It With You", a three-act comedy written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman.

Mr. Winters accepted the job of directing the play and began try-outs at once. The final outcome of the try-outs was as follows:

Penny Sycamore	Elva Davis
Paul Sycamore	Ted Pleibel
Essie	Mabelle Cochran
Grandpa	Bill Adams
Mr. DePinna	Walt Parsons
Boris Kolenkhov	Bill Taylor
Rheba	Edna Coffman
Donald	Ed Sellers

Alice Sycamore	Elaine Dugan
Tony Kirby	Ron Marryott
Mr. Kirby	Walter Fraser
Mrs. Kirby	Cornelia Scott
Henderson	Frank McLaughlin
Gay Wellington	Pat Rhodes
Olga	Joan Fanean
Three G-Men	Jack Forrest, Alec Slater, Chuck Bohan

The prompters were Charlotte Beagle, Pat Amy, Barbara Sayre, and Mildred Barder.

The many weird properties, including a jar of flies, firecrackers, and a skull, were collected under the supervision of Miss Atkinson, who also had charge of the ticket and program committees.

During the next six weeks, we watched our play slowly take form. Rehearsals proved to be very interesting. Everyone will remember those chilly evenings when we huddled around the footlights to get warm. Firecrackers could be heard resounding throughout the auditorium and school on practice nights, and all of them were not in the play! Through our corridors on those history-making nights walked ballet dancers, Russian-speaking dance teachers, fireworks display experts, actresses, discus throwers, and artists "extraordinaire."

While we were still rehearsing, Yeadon put on the same play, so we visited their performance to get ideas, and, in turn, they visited ours.

In addition to the evening performance on December 7, we also gave a matinee, which was very successful, for the entire school. Of course, this was not without "ad libs", the longest and most involved of which was the time Ed Sellers forgot his cue.

The evening performance went off with nary a mishap, and everyone who attended, and there was quite a crowd, remarked about how well the play had been staged and acted.

Afterwards we seniors, feeling proud of a job well done, enjoyed a party at the home of Bill Adams.

YOU CAN LOOK TWICE AT

SAVED DOLLARS

BE THRIFTY BY SAVING

The dollars you spend you see just once; but those deposited in your bank account you see again months or years later, with interest added.

Years hence those "good old dollars" could come in mighty handy. That's one reason for banking some of them now.

If you wish, you may bank by mail. We desire to help in every way to make our service convenient and useful to you.

Barbara,

Dear Barbara,

Barbara, Barbara
in the tub, mother forgot to put in the plug goodness gracious, bless my soul there goes Barbara down the hole!

Love Barbara

Dear Barbs,

When ever you read about

Dr. Rex, (in the paper)

You'll always remember your old friend "Tex."

Your friend Lyn.

Dear Barbara,

Never forget the fun
we have had in the past years and hope that we have many more.

Love
